

Join us for the 5th annual

State of Nonviolence

Saturday, December 7, 2019

12-5pm

North Presbyterian Church
4515 Superior Ave., Cleveland 44103

Schedule

12-5: Holiday Peace Bazaar Marketplace

12-4: lunch (nominal fee)

12-12:30: historical background of geographic region of Sudan (by St Ignatius students)

12:30-1: Universal Dances of Peace with a chant based on a Rumi poem

1-1:30: Phil Metres reads poems from recently released book Return to Jaffa

1:45-2: historical background of Sudan

2-2:45: open

2:45-3: historical background of Sudan

3-4: keynote by Malaz Elgemiabby

Art as Change: How art moved the people of Sudan toward nonviolent resistance to depose a repressive regime

Keynote: Malaz Elgemiabby will display her art and discuss the role that art played in the successful nonviolent movement to depose the repressive regime of President Omar al-Bashir and to negotiate with the military on the transition to democratic rule for the people of Sudan.

HOLIDAY PEACE BAZAAR MARKETPLACE

fair trade and justice-centered alternative holiday shopping

Vendors include:

99 Treasures, Bellfield Arts, Canaan Fair Trade, Cleveland Peace Action, Drink Local Drink Tap, Edwin's, InterReligious Task Force (IRTF), NEO Coalition for the Homeless (NEOCH), Phil Metres Poetry, Social Justice Institute

Lunch available for a nominal fee

vegetarian and vegan options

Event tickets (free) at EventBrite.com

<https://www.facebook.com/clevelandnonviolencenetwork/>

Organizer: Cleveland Nonviolence Network

Co-sponsors include: African American Museum, Cleveland Jobs With Justice, Cleveland Peace Action, Council on American-Islamic Relations (CAIR), Interreligious Task Force on Central America (IRTF), NEO Sierra Club, North Presbyterian Church, Ohio Immigrant Alliance, St. Malachi Parish-Social Action Commission, St. Paul's Community Church, Single Payer Action Network-Ohio (SPAN), Tea Time for Peace