IMMIGRATION WITH TANIA NEMER

What's really going on in the U.S. immigration system? How can we become informed voters as we try to understand such a complicated and broken part of our nation?

MARCH 1 @ 12:30PM

COMMUNITY OF ST. PETER
7100 EUCLID AVE. SUITE 125

Tania Nemer is a graduate of Cooley Law School and a lawyer with 17 years of experience. She served as an immigration judge in Cleveland and is among dozens of immigration judges removed from their posts this year by the Trump administration. She has filed a lawsuit claiming she was unlawfully dismissed because of her gender, national origin and past political activity.
