IRTF's 19th annual SOCIAL JUSTICE TEACH-IN

Dear friends,

On Saturday, February 9, IRTF will present our 19th annual Social Justice Teach-In, in conjunction with Case Western Reserve University. Our Teach-In is a great opportunity for students (and people of all ages) to learn about critical human rights issues and practice hands-on skills to organize for change.

For the past two years, the Teach-In attracted several hundred participants, mostly students from 35 area high schools and colleges. The Teach-In provides participants with information, skills, and resources to support social justice campaigns at their schools, congregations, and in their communities.

In past years this fantastic event was made possible only because of generous co-sponsors.

Generous support from co-sponsors has enabled us to allow college and high school students to attend the Teach-In for free!

We invite you to co-sponsor this event.

Your co-sponsorship will help us allow students to attend the event for free, keep the admission for the general public at only $10, feed the crowd of 800+ attendees, and to offer a modest stipend to each of the workshop presenters.

Co-Sponsorship levels:

$100 (2 free tickets, brunch, and your organization's name in our program book)

$200 (4 free tickets, brunch + your organization's logo in our program book)

$250+ (5 free tickets, brunch + your colored logo on a cover page of our program book)

Please let us know via promotions@irtfcleveland.org whether to add your organization as a co-sponsor by Monday, February 4, or call 216.961.0003.

Payment:

By check: IRTF, 3606 Bridge Ave, Cleveland, OH 44113

Online: www.2019teachin.eventbrite.com

Co-sponsorship shows that you support our work empowering young people to become leaders for positive social change.
