

THE 20TH ANNUAL SOCIAL JUSTICE TEACH-IN

THE INTERRELIGIOUS TASK FORCE in conjunction with

CASE WESTERN RESERVE UNIVERSITY
presents this day of workshops and speakers as an opportunity for PEOPLE OF ALL AGES to learn about critical local, domestic, and global justice issues. Facilitators may not only present empirical data, but also engage community members through ART AND STORYTELLING.

HIP HOP ARTIST - ACTIVIST - SCHOLAR

FEATURING

OLMECCA

Olmecca is a Bilingual, Latinx Hip-Hop artist, producer, activist and scholar. This, along with his social commentary and community efforts makes him a stand-alone artist. He can intersect various identities and demographics. It is also for this reason that he is not only a gifted performing artist, but a university lecturer.

to register:

2020TEACHIN.EVENTBRITE.COM

- event registration opens at 10:30 and INCLUDES BRUNCH
- $10 registration, FREE for students and low-income folks

11:00 am - 3:30 pm

SATURDAY, FEBRUARY 8, 2020

IRTF
Inter/Religious Task Force on Central America

CASE WESTERN RESERVE
UNIVERSITY EST. 1826

Case Western Reserve University
Tinkham Veale Center
11038 Bellflower Rd
Cleveland, OH 44106